

The LFBF Financial Capability Conference

Monday 18 November 2024 at The Bank of England, London

09:00	Registration	Coffee, breakfast rolls and arrivals
09:30	Keynote	Welcome – with Katie Martin, Head of Stakeholder & Media Engagement at The Bank of England
09:35	Keynote	Financial capability in the UK – accelerating progress – with Shelley Doorey-Williams, Chief Executive at The London Foundation for Banking & Finance
09:50	Keynote	A deep dive into the research findings on UK financial capability – with Sarah Dryden, Researcher at Bayes Business School
10:30	Networking	Coffee Break
11:00	Keynote	From financial capability to financial stability - with Sam Woods, Deputy Governor at the Bank of England and CEO of the PRA
11:30	Keynote	Can't We Just Print More Money? A novel approach to increasing financial capability – with Andrew Hebden, Head of Public & Stakeholder Engagement at The Bank of England
12:00	Breakout	What other ways could we accelerate progress?	What else do you think is holding progress back?	How could we better join forces to accelerate progress?
13:00	Networking	Lunch
14:00	Panel	Practical approaches to enhancing financial capability for young people – with Sarah Marks, CEO at RedSTART Educate, Jess Evans Adviser to the NCS Trust Royal Charter Body Board, Sarah Dryden, Researcher at Bayes Business School and chaired by David Kennedy, Vice Chair at LFBF
14:30	Panel	Technology innovations for improving financial capability – with Philip Haglund, Founder and CEO at Gimi, Sabrina Au, Chief Partnerships Officer at Dot Dot Fire and chaired by Sabrina Del Prete, Founder and CEO at Kore Labs Limited
15:00	Networking	Grab a coffee en route to your breakout (make a pledge)
15:10	Breakout	Practical approaches to enhancing financial capability for young people	Technology innovations for improving financial capability
16:10	Keynote	Closing Remarks - recap of key takeaways and call to action for continued progress – with Shelley Doorey-Williams, Chief Executive at The London Foundation for Banking & Finance
16:30	Networking	Stay for an apéro - drinks and nibbles
17:00	Wave Goodbye	Wave goodbye

The London
Foundation for
Banking & Finance